

Event Report: Career Counselling Seminar for BA Psychology Students

Date: January 24th, 2024

Time: 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM

Venue: SDA Arts and Science College

Brief report:

The Career Counselling Seminar for BA Psychology students held on January 24th, 2024, from 12 to 2 pm, at the SDA Arts and Science College was a resounding success. The seminar aimed to provide valuable insights, guidance, and practical advice to help students make informed career decisions as they progress in the field of psychology. We were honored to have Ms. Rupangi Shah (RCI recognized clinical psychologist) as the facilitator for the seminar. Her extensive expertise and professional insights added significant value to the event. Ms. Rupangi's presentation was both informative and engaging. She covered a wide range of topics, providing a comprehensive overview of potential career paths within the field of psychology. The seminar included an interactive question-and-answer session where students had the opportunity to directly engage with Ms. Shah. This fostered a dynamic and participative learning environment. The students responded enthusiastically to the seminar, expressing gratitude for the valuable information and guidance provided. Many highlighted the practical advice shared by Ms. Shah as particularly beneficial. The seminar witnessed full attendance. This ensured that every student had the opportunity to benefit from the knowledge and insights shared.
